

It is with the greatest regret that the decision has been taken by the Rector and PCCs of the Benefice that all our churches will be closed with immediate effect and remain so for the month of February. This is due, mainly, to the high risk of transmission of new variants of Covid 19. Dispensation will be given by the Bishop for the closure. We shall, however remain open for private prayer as follows:-

St Peter's – Wednesday and Sunday, 10am to 4pm

St Nicholas – Thursday and Sunday, 10am to 4pm

St Andrew's – Daily, 10am to 4pm

The situation will be reviewed on the 16th February and we are hoping that a decision towards re-opening will be able to be made following the government review and announcement regarding the easing of lockdown measures on 22nd February.

We are encouraged to join the service at Exeter Cathedral on-line this Sunday, to celebrate Candlemas. After this I shall endeavour to record a service each week which I will ask Chris Morris to put up on Shaldon Churches website in readiness for Sunday mornings.

I continue to be available, by telephone, for pastoral conversation or to answer any questions you may have. 01626 873173.

With every blessing

Annie
